Now I'd like to ask you a few questions dealing with state issues.

SG1. Skill games are video gaming machines that resemble digital slot machines or video gaming terminals. These games can be played in gas stations, convenience stores, fraternal clubs, bars, and gaming parlors. Skill games are not currently regulated or taxed by the state in the same ways that casino games are. Would you favor or oppose having these skill games regulated and taxed by the state like casino-based games?
